Underwriting your application

The basic source of information we use to determine your eligibility for this insurance policy is your application. Experienced underwriters will carefully and promptly review the information you have provided. In addition, we may also obtain information from other sources, including attending physicians and hospitals, as authorized by you when you complete your application.

We do this to keep our insurance rates as low as possible. If we did not obtain adequate underwriting information about each of our applicants, the majority of policy owners who do provide accurate, complete information would have to bear the extra cost of insuring those individuals who do not.

A high percentage of our applicants are in good health and meet our underwriting standards. As a result, these applications are quickly approved and insurance policies issued. Some applicants, however, present a greater insurance risk, usually due to an abnormal physical condition or history of medical problems. In these cases, insurance coverage is denied. By underwriting policies in this way, we try to keep the cost of health care coverage affordable to as many people as possible.

Please note: If you, your spouse or any dependent applying for coverage receives medical advice or treatment from a physician or other professional provider for a condition which is incurred after this application is signed but prior to the effective date of coverage, you must notify Highmark Blue Shield's Underwriting Department immediately at 120 Fifth Avenue, Suite 1224, Pittsburgh, PA 15222-3099. A change in your medical condition that occurs prior to your effective date could result in a denial of coverage if your application has not yet been approved or cancellation of coverage if your application has been approved but coverage is not yet effective.

How to appeal a denial for insurance coverage

You have the right to appeal a denial for medical insurance. To do so, complete the following steps within 60 days of the date shown on the denial letter you receive:

- 1) Ask the attending physician to write a letter providing additional medical information about the condition(s) for which coverage was denied. Have the doctor include any pertinent clinical information to support your appeal.
- 2) Send the physician's letter, clinical information and a copy of the denial letter to:

Highmark Blue Shield
DirectBlue Appeal
Fifth Avenue Place
120 Fifth Avenue, Suite 1224
Pittsburgh, PA 15222-3099

Your appeal will be reviewed by a physician on our medical review staff, and a final decision will be issued to you in writing within 30 days.
